THE ONLY BOOK IN PRINT ON THIS SUBJECT! Description, analysis & history of the first global citizen initiative in history: PHILADELPHIA II which empowers citizens to put in place Direct Democracy - the direct political participation of people - in every governmental jurisdiction of the United States. Where representative government exists in the United States & in any other Democracy, Philadelphia II expands democracy with an initiative law enabling people to make public policy & laws, as their representatives now do. Philadelphia II sets up a partnership between the people, i.e. Direct Democracy, & their representatives, i.e. Representative Democracy. At the global level where there is no governance structure within which to empower people, Philadelphia II provides procedures for the people directly to convene a World Meeting & elect delegates to address problems of global governance. Filed in Washington State on January 9, 1995, Philadelphia II awaits their voter decision on November 7, 1995. From there it then goes national & global. The book is written in collaboration with the Philadelphia Initiative's creator, Senator Mike Gravel. Order from: One World Publishing, P.O. Box 270, Chesterfield, MO 63006. $16.96 postpaid.
